For Sale: Complete 144mhz / 440mhz portable crossband repeater. It consists of 2 Motorola GM300 mobile radios (8 channel - 20W with Motorola/PL259 adapters), Samlex SEC1212 12 amp power supply, MFJ duplexer, mic (for local use of one radio), fan, backlit digital voltage meter, and carry case. Radios are wired with a commercial straight through cable (from ebay). Everything will run on 12V (Anderson connectors) or 110V. No set up time, just add a dual band antenna and you're on the air. Good unit for extended emergency use as it runs much cooler than a single radio in crossband repeat. Radios are programmed with local repeater and simplex frequencies so you could crossband into 146.880, etc.

This unit has about 16 hours on it since it was built and has no issues. Email for pictures. Price is $595 or trade for Icom 706MIIG, Yaesu FT-857/ FT-897.
